Teaching is an adventure
Challenging myself

As a teacher it is your task to challenge students. Do you also feel challenged by your students? During the series of events Challenging myself, you have the opportunity to reflect on the challenges you are confronted with in classroom. Using a tandem approach, we share personal experiences and finally each of us comes up with his or her own challenge for professional and personal growth.

Wednesday from 6 to 8 p.m.: Nov 8 and 29, Dec 6 in room 001 in Wilhelmstr. 19.

Coaching for teaching

You are currently engaged in teaching and you are dealing with problems you did not have to deal with before. Would you like to talk to someone about these issues? Coaching for teaching supports you in going through the various processes all teachers at university have to face.

On Wednesday from 3 to 4 p.m. a staff member of the Center for Teaching and Learning is attainable for consultation in the lern+Zentrum of the Universitätsbibliothek, Wilhelmstr. 32.
More Information will be updated on facebook.

Shortcuts with shift

The “shift from teaching to learning” implies a new paradigm: Students no longer are to be instructed, rather their active learning is to be stimulated. Are you curious about possible ways, how to achieve this shift? The Shortcuts with shift are workshops focusing on one specific question that all participants agree on at the beginning. Using methods from theatre pedagogics, we then scrutinize this issue and identify its aspects that make the shift from teaching to learning more likely to happen.
