Confirmation of Conditions and Obligations

In submitting a proposal for a Tübingen Reloaded return fellowship, you agree to the following conditions and obligations, which will come into effect in case your application will be approved. You will

- inform TRACe of any changes following the submission of your proposal and
- give your consent to the electronic processing and storage of data provided in conjunction with your proposal and to the transmission of such data to reviewers and committee members involved in the review and decision-making process.

You also agree that after the funded research visit you will

- submit a short report (one page) detailing the results of the funded visit and comparing them to the objectives stated in the proposal and including a brief outlook on further cooperation plans
- submit a completed reimbursement form listing refundable travel expenses and including payment documents and original receipts
- commit yourself to take part in a survey, which will be issued about one year after the funding period has ended and
- give your consent to a public profile in our research alumni online gallery (currently being established on our website) and provide some information about your current research focus, academic background, further career path and impressions of your time in Tübingen (research alumnus/a only).

We hereby accept the foregoing conditions and obligations.
