

Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft German Research Foundation

Postal address: DFG, 53170 Bonn, Germany

To the members and guests of the
"Arabidopsis Functional Genomics Network"
(AFGN)

(see mailing list)

Life Sciences 2
Dr. Catherine Kistner

DFG Head Office
Kennedyallee 40
53175 Bonn, Germany

Fax +49-(0)228-885-2777
Phone +49-(0)228-885-2803
E-mail Catherine.Kistner@dfg.de
Web www.dfg.de

27 January 2012 Bh
PAK 229/1

For information only:

Professor Dr. Roman Ulm, Genf
Professor Dr. Marie-Theres Hauser, Wien
Professor Dr. Regine Kahmann, Marburg

Invitation to the 8th Tri-National Arabidopsis Meeting
September 12 – 15, 2012
University of Lausanne, Switzerland

Dear AFGN member,
Dear guest,

Referring to my communication with Professor Klaus Harter, Tuebingen, I would like to cordially invite you to the 8th Tri-National Arabidopsis Meeting of the Arabidopsis Functional Genomics Network (AFGN), the Austrian Platform of Arabidopsis Research and the Swiss Plant Science Network.

The meeting will take place at the:
University of Lausanne

Start: September 12, 2012, 2:00 pm

End: September 15, 2012, 1:00 pm

For details please see the Meeting web site: <http://www3.unil.ch/wpmu/tnam12/> or contact the organisers (email:tnam12@unil.ch).

For AFGN groups funded in the final phase of the AFGN, the invitation includes the Principle Investigator(s) and up to one co-worker involved in the AFGN project.

The DFG reimburses travel expenses according to the German Travel Expenses Act. Information on this act and general guidelines on business travel accident insurance are attached for your information.

Please note the following revision:

Travellers are expected to pay for accommodations and claim subsequent reimbursement from the DFG. To receive full reimbursement for accommodations (including breakfast), invoices must be addressed to the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft, Kennedyallee 40, 53175 BONN, GERMANY and include the name of the guest.

Your travel expenses will be reimbursed after the meeting. Therefore, please keep all receipts (tickets) and send them with the enclosed travel claim form to the Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft.

Thank you for your assistance.

I look forward to meeting you in Lausanne.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Catherine Kistner". The signature is written in a cursive, flowing style.

Dr. Catherine Kistner

Enclosures/Links

www.dfg.de/formulare

DFG-Vordruck 30.03e, General Information on the German Travel Expenses Act

DFG-Vordruck 71.02e, Business Travel Accident Insurance