제 목 [LTI Korea] Request for cooperation: <2015 Residency Program for Translation Research in Korean Literature>

---

1. This is LTI Korea (Literature Translation Institute of Korea).

2. LTI Korea is a government-affiliated organization which aims to disseminate Korean culture and literature throughout the world in line with the government's efforts to shape Korean literature in the world culture.

3. LTI Korea offers 2015 Residency Program for Translation Research in Korean Literature. This program is intended to give opportunities to international translators and translation/publication professionals to stay in Korea and learn about the flow of Korean literature and culture. Also, this program supports the translators to generate high quality translations.

4. Please refer to the attached file for more detailed information about the program. We would highly appreciate it if you could share this information with those who are interested in and passionate about Korean literature and translation.

5. Thank you for your cooperation in advance. If you need additional information about the program, please contact Alex Baek at 82-2-6919-7725 or alex_b@klti.or.kr. We look forward to hearing from you.

Attachment: 1. Application Guide for 2015 Residency Program(KOR/ENG)
2. Application Form for 2015 Residency Program. 끝.
